

ITALOFONIA: LINGUA OLTRE I CONFINI

XXV WEEK OF ITALIAN LANGUAGE IN THE WORLD

SETTIMANA DELLA LINGUA ITALIANA NEL MONDO

A Journey Through Linguistic Diversity in Italy: A Mosaic of Dialects

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 26 @ 5:00 PM

30400 Telegraph Rd – Ste 151 | Bingham Farms, MI 48025
(North Building – East Entrance)

Join us in celebrating the beauty and diversity of the Italian language!

Presented by Alessandra Cuzzocrea

Italophony: The Global Voice of Italian

Discover the worldwide journey of the Italian language—shaped by history, migration, and culture.
From Dante's Tuscan roots to vibrant regional tongues—Neapolitan, Sicilian, Venetian, Sardinian—Italian is a mosaic of identity and tradition.
Spoken not only in Italy but also in Switzerland, San Marino, Vatican City, Malta, and thriving in communities across Argentina, Brazil, the USA, and Australia, Italian has over 70 million native speakers and millions of learners worldwide.
A language of art, fashion, cuisine, and cultural prestige, Italian and its dialects are treasures worth celebrating and preserving.

Organized under the High Patronage of the President of the Italian Republic by the Consulate of Italy in Detroit, Com.it.es. and the Dante Alighieri Society of Michigan

Consolato d'Italia Detroit

COMITES DETROIT

Light refreshments will be served.

Free and Open to the Public - Registration is required online:

www.dantemichigan.org

Società Dante Alighieri Michigan Chapter